TELEGRAMS.

WASHINGTON.

The Paraguayan War Ended.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The news of the death of Lopez is confirmed. He was surrounded by the Brazilian troops, and refusing to surrender was shot dead on the spot. His death and the dispersion of his followers, put an end to the war.

SUICIDE.

ST. LOUIS, April 14.—The dead body found in the river 12 miles below this city proves to be that of F. F. Rasleigh, lately of the editorial staff of the Cleveland Leader. A letter found on the body attributes the suicide to the infidelity of his wife and the prosecution of a fraudulent claim against him by the Cleveland Academy of Music. The body was cared for by the coroner.

HAVANA.

The Rebellion on the Decline.

HAVANA, April 14.—Intelligence from Port au Prince to the 11th inst., says that the rebels are every where in confusion. The column of marines killed fifty-two insurgents, including Manuel Aguirre and Francisco Lares, prominent rebel leaders. Large numbers of the enemy are said to be flocking into the Spanish camps every day, to claim the protection guaranteed by the amnesty proclamation. This, let it be remembered, is the government statement of the condition.
